

PAOLITE

501 Elm Street Paoli, IN 47454 • 812.723.3905 • www.thepaolite.wordpress.com

Unhappy Anniversary

Only one day after the one-year anniversary of the devastating fire that tore apart the southwest part of the square, a storm hit the northwest part of the square leaving lots of damage behind. The national weather service deemed this storm to be a tornado.

The storm contained winds up to 95 miles per hour. The tornado was about 100 yards wide and traveled for about two miles.

Damages were not only made to the square but to many areas of the

Story Continued on Page 2

Above Left: Holiday decorations were a small part of the damage in and around the square. Left: The Hucks gas station and the building that houses the police and fire station sustained damage in the storm. Above: Northwest corner of the square lost part of the roof and forced owners to scramble for a clean-up. Above right: The Courthouse lost three chimneys during the storm.

Photos by Breanna Daugherty

On the Inside:

3

Take a look at some unusual Apps you need this holiday season

7

Get help on how to survive the Holiday Blues

12

What does Stacie Durbin keep in her desk?
We took a look...