

March Madness

Sixty-four enter, but only one will be crowned champion of the court. As Selection Sunday (March 11) approaches, people will be filling out brackets, and waiting for the king of the court to be crowned. We asked students and staff to give their opinion on the biggest upsets, best conference and the champion of the NCAA Men's Tourney.

Art teacher Chris Jones

Accuracy Levels: 75% right, always a team that blows it for everybody.
Most represented team: Big 10
Team to win it all: Syracuse
Most surprising team: Hoosiers (cautiously optimistic)

Coach Jason Harrell

Accuracy Levels: I'M NEVER WRONG.
Most represented conference: Big 10
Team to win it all: Kentucky
Most surprising team: UNLV

Science teacher Kevin Jones

Accuracy Levels: Gets lucky sometimes at choosing the winners
Most represented teams: Big East
Team to win it all: I hope I'm wrong... Kentucky

Government teacher Scott Gudorf

Accuracy Levels: Gets lucky sometimes at choosing the winners
Most surprising team to get in: Northwestern
Final Four: Kansas, Syracuse, UK & Michigan St.

Freshman Austin Moore

Accuracy Levels: Gets lucky sometimes at choosing winners
Final Four: Duke, Kansas, Syracuse & Murray St.
Most exciting player: Draymond Greene

Freshman Kris Slaten

Accuracy Levels: I'M NEVER WRONG.
Underdogs: Wisconsin, Michigan & IU
Players to watch: Cody Zeller
Biggest Match-up: Kentucky vs. Michigan St.

Sophomore Garrett Strange

Accuracy Levels: I'M NEVER WRONG
Underdogs: VCU, Wyoming & Murray St.
Final Four: UK, Syracuse, Kansas & Duke
Most Surprising Team: Murray St.

Sophomore Ben Bosley

Accuracy Levels: Gets lucky sometimes at choosing winners.
Most represented conference: Big 10
Team to win it all: North Carolina
Most surprising team: Notre Dame

Junior Aaron Key

Accuracy Levels: Gettin' a lot right
Underdogs: USF, Morehead St.
Final Four: Kansas, Duke, UK & Ohio St.
Biggest Match-up: Championship game

Junior Tyler Line

Accuracy Levels: Gets lucky sometimes at choosing the winners.
Most represented conference: ACC
Most exciting player: Anthony Davis (UK)
Biggest upset: IU beating anyone...

Senior Dylan Hoover

Accuracy Levels: Not confident; too many upsets.
Most represented conference: Big 10
Team to win it all: Syracuse
Most disappointing team: Missouri

Senior Brian Wilson

Accuracy Levels: Too many different outcomes
Final Four: UNC, Kasnsas, Ohio St. & Duke
Most exciting player(s): Thomas Robinson and Isaiah Canaan
Biggest Upset: Michigan St. gets beat

Info by Ian Bostock
 Photos by Tessa England, Breanna Daugherty & Dylan Hoover

FEATURED

Senior Tasha Tedrow

What position do you play?
Center Field.

How often do you practice?
Everyday after school, and Saturdays.

Who will your toughest opponent be this year.
Bedford North Lawrence

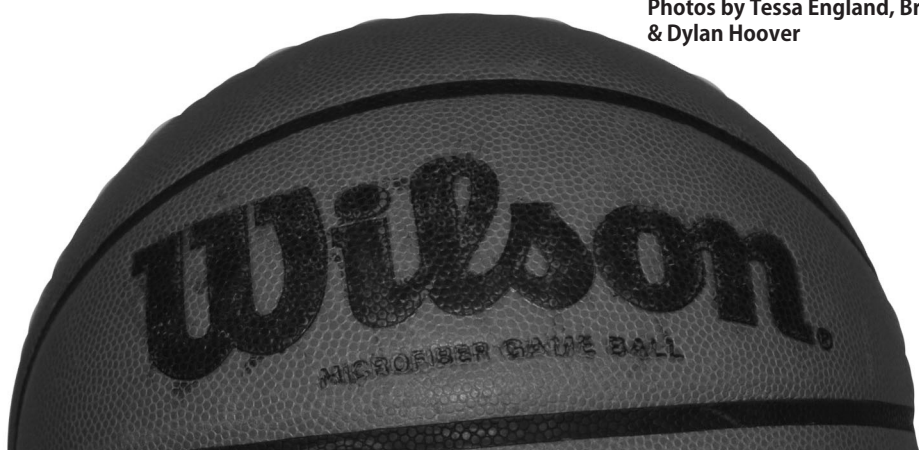

How long is your season?
Until I graduate.

What is your biggest strength this year?
Working as a team rather than by ourselves.

What is your biggest weakness?
Focus and communication.

What are your goals for this season?
Personally, to get All-Conference. As a team, to win sectional.

What is your favorite part about softball?
Being with my friends and the competition of the game.

THE SHOT

A look at Boys Sectional

SPORTS RECAP

Photo by Breanna Daugherty

Photo by Breanna Daugherty

Photo by Breanna Daugherty

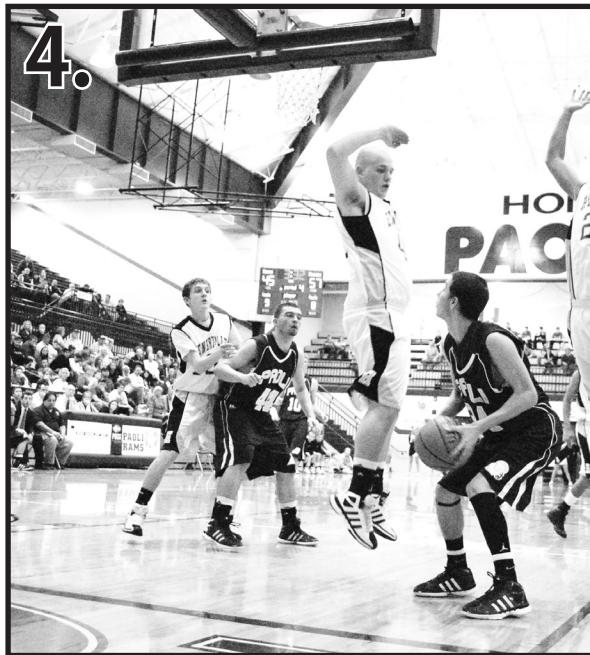

Photo by Breanna Daugherty

1. Sophomore Tanner Wroblewski gets the jump ball against Henryville. "The best thing about basketball is being with all my friends, and the locker room moments," said Wroblewski. 2. Sophomore Ben Bosley gets a rebound in the game. "What I liked most about the season was just hanging out with everybody," said Bosley. 3. Junior Aaron Key reaches out for a rebound in Saturday's Sectional game. "The season turned out disappointing because we know we are better than what we played. But we got a Sectional win and did improve so I'm somewhat happy." 4. Senior Breck Eubank boxes out Henryville's player. "What I will miss the most is strap'n 'em up and doin' work every day of my life."

Info by Cohen Bostock

Wrestling:
The Varsity Wrestling team finished out the season well with three people making it to Semi State.

Basketball:
The Girls Varsity basketball team finished out the season by winning Sectional and winning their first game in Regional.

The Boys Varsity basketball team ended their season with winning their first game in Sectional against Henryville and losing their second game to Crawford County.

Upcoming Sports:
Baseball
Track
Golf-Boys
Softball
Tennis-Girls

Info by Ian Bostock

Can't get enough Paolite?

www.thepaolite.wordpress.com

Paoli
Health & Living Community

559 W. Longest Street
Paoli, IN 47454

Phone: 812-723-2595 • Fax: 812-723-4407

Cell: 812-583-5807 • www.cardon.us